FARMVILLE, VA., FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1905.

CITY DIRECTORY.

W. T. Blanton. NY UK COUNCIL-H. E. Barrow. or or Conscile-H. E. Barrow.
e Seri. Ev Committees.
II. E. Wall, W. F. Gilliam, W. E.

off. E. Wall, W. Maiker Scott, alia. W. E. Anderson, H. E. Wall, off. W. F. Anderson, H. E. Wall,
off. E. W. F. Hilliam, E. L. Krambert, coll.
v. M. Davall, S. W. Walkins, W.
Wealth could not buy the half W. M. Duvall, S. W. Watkins, W.

H. E. Barrow, W. P. Gilliam, H. E. Whiter Scott, E. L. Brambert, COUNTY DIRECTORY.

of County and Circuit Courts-K. J.

. E. Garbaod.

e. W. H. Ewbing.

scioner of Revenue - R. J. Curter.

T. H. Dickinson.

gwenith's Attorney-A. D. Watword of Supervisors Farmville District Verser; Buffalo District, R. Lee Price instea Dutrict, E. L. Dupny, (Chairmans, kell District, W. H. Hubbard; Leigh Dis-A. A. Haskins.

W. LANCASTER,

ATTORNEY AT LAW. Practices in State and Federal Courts Claims for collection given prompt at-

HENRY E. LEE. J. TAYLOR THOMPSON

Lee & Thompson, Attorneys at Law,

FARMVILLE AND CREWE, VA. curs Prince Edward, Notioway and a ing counties. Frompi attention to be es. Collections made and promptly re

J. M. CRUTE, -Attorney at Law,-

FARMVILLE, . . . VIBGINIA.

Practice in Prince Edward and adjoining outlies, the Supreme Court of Virginia and Finited States Court of Richmond, as titles in Richardson Block.

WATKINS, WATKINS & BROCK, -ATTORNEYS AT LAW, -

FARMVILLE, VA. e in Courts of Prince Edward, Cura Unrkingham, Nottoway and Ame Juried States Court at Richmond distinction paid to cases in bank

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Green Bay, Prince Edward County, Va.

tor Courts:-State and Federal.

W. C. FRANKLIN

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, PAMPLIN CITY, VA.

Practices in Appointation, Prince Edward and Charlotte counties. Supreme Court of Virginia and U. S. Courts.

WHITE & CO., DRUGS, Medicines and

Druggists' Sundries,

Furniture

At Prices to Suit Every Purse.

The Handsomest line ever shown in Farmville. Our New and Commodious Warerooms are crowded from 1st ? to 3rd floor with the newest designs in everything in the Furniture Line.

Call to See What We Have. W. T. DOYNE.

In announcing to the public that our new store is completed and equipped with a full line of drugs, chemicals and druggist's sundries, perfumes and toilet articles, of stationery, smokers' supplies, &c.

We are now in a better po-sition than ever to render efficient service to our patrons and extend to all a cordial invitation to call and inspect

Anderson Drug Co.,

6 % Grove

POOR CROESUS.

If I were rich as Crossus—
Dear heart, there's naught I lack,
And if I lost what now I have.
No wealth could bring it back!
If I were rich as Crossus,
And I were left alono,
Could golden dress bring back thy heart
To beat against my own?

Nay, I am rich as Crossus,
Far richer, toe, I ween,
For there are hearts so close to mins
That maught may come between,
Aye, I am rich as Crossus—
I've held your hands in mine!
Nor saw your dear eyes shine,
-J. M. Lewis, in Houston Post

00000000000000000 When the Hens of Germany Went on Strike.

BY ETHEL ARMES. 000000000000

THE hens of Germany went on strike once, and the settlement strike once, and the settlement of their troubles was consigned to Baron Gustave Hermann von dem Mueller, agricultural attache to the German embassy of Washington, District of Co-lumbia. The steward of the kniser's estates, one Freiherr Otto Adolphus von Puckler-Lundorst, was en route to assist the baron, and together the gentiemen were to inspect "our most illus-trious chicken farms" and purchase some American hone minus perverted notions. Thus Baron Gustave took up the chicken question with his custo-mary and commendable fervor, and it was not many days before it became the official loke, and the baron's private correspondence with Mr. Whitelaw Reid on perches and nests was parodled in nearly every dining room of the diplomatic corps. Whenever the baron appeared at any social functions whatever, the conversation gravely and delicately turned to incubators brooders, feeding troughs and hen reached New York, his mission had be-come famous, and Baron Gustave had, so it is said, a large number of thoroughbred American hens in gorgeously trimmed coops awalting the freiherr. The noble gentlemen then

"Is the baron von dem Mueller in?" then asked.

"Nein," returned Johan "Why, he hasn't left the city again! Nein, er schus goom pack."

"Well, Johan, where is he?" "Er vas py der loodging." "Do you know where that is, Johan?"

"Is the ambassador himself here

"Nein, er vas in der ould gountree for dis von mont more." "Well, Johan, is the first secretary

"Der gount Karl Yosef Wilhelm von Steinwartz-Linstow?" John inquired placidly, "you like mit him to see?"
"I do," said I, and Johan shuffled off.
Never yet in the 15 years that Johan has been doorkeeper of the German embassy has he lifted his heels from the floor. He returned, in his own time, and led me to one of the basement offices with white painted brick walls and barred windows overlooking the green square in the back yard. Behold! the Count Karl Josef Wilhelm von Steinwartz-Linstow. He was at least six feet five, blonde, of course, race of the Volsungs! He bowed pro-foundly several times when I entered and with English but faintly accented "What, fraulein, may I haf the pleasure of doing for you?"

"Tell me, if you please sir, where I may find the freiherr von Puckler-Landorst?" I said, albeit hopelessly. "Alas!" the count's very heart ap-peared to break, "he has come, frauetn, und he has gone!"

"Oh!" I cried. "Oh!" he murmured spontaneously the freiherr will so sorry be! It was Maryland that he was obliged to go arly this morning on business. But is there no one else who can for you Perhaps Baron von dem Mueller can help me." "Perhaps he can!" the count saw daylight again, "it will so vast a pleasure be for him."

"It is very important," said I.

serve, fraulein?"

"Of course-of course! I will tele-phone at once to the baron that he lein, if you will be so kind as to leaf Gount Linstow sendt vort dot der your number, I shall there send word gountess dit telegraph dot she vill to you that the appointment may be gome at dree by der cluck, insteadt off definitely arranged, and I will tell Herr discending, und der abbointment mit Walters to do the same. I am sorry, der yoong lady must be schange to fraulein, that this does occasion for you one worry, but it is all that can dot vas goodt, so Herr Walters tell Walters to do the same. I am sory fraulein, that this does occasion for you one worry, but it is all that can be done fust now, is it not, fraulein, or is there more that I may do?"

I thanked him and said, "perhapse in the greatest of the properties of the propert partment figures had quite staggered the Prusslans. The secretary said that Baron Gustave had told him with tears in his eyes, in the presence of the freiherr, that the hens in Germany would BEAUTY BEHIND THE TREES. not lay, and that every egg in the empire had to be imported from Hunstandard in Germany—which informa-tion I will ask you to use at your dis-cretion."

perhaps had never seen the place. Yet the Belknap farm was the nearest to the stately old trees, and Ethan and I returned to the office and there I found enough messages to foat a dozen barons. The first four actually stated that the Count Karl Josef Wilhelm von Steinwartz-Linstow was doing all in his power. The last one from Herr Walters was definite. It informed me that the baron was at lunch at the Metropolitan club, and would come to his lodging at three by the clock, according to the hour named, where he would be charmed. An hour later I was again called up, Herr Walters was that they became a little more guns and shields for armorial effect.

over his mushroom brow. It was Herr grove, but they ceased to lament it. By its aid they had tested the beautiful vent oudt! He was vatink von hour. and den he vas opleeged to go!"

I sank into the first chair that I

"I veer not deez afternoon, fraulein! ina So-and-So." You see he vas opleeched to go to meet der Countess Steinwartz-Linstow at der schitation Paldimore und Bennsylvania, mit der gount whose wife she ss. She vas coneggspected goom at inferiors.—Lady's Pictorial.

A Countess Steinwartz-Linstow! I recovered presently and asked Herr for it," she pouted. "You pretended Steinwartz-Linstow.

"Sir," said the seedy man, addressing a prosperous-looking passer-by, "would iss the fraulein!" "The baron himself!" I exclaimed. "Utd last! Utd last!" cried the baron in such an overwhelming voice that sate fellow-man with a few pence?" every passenger on the car turned around and stared, "Utd last we von other, as he put his hand in his pocket. arother vind!" Off went his tall hat another vind!" Off went his tall hat another vind!" Off went his tall hat "Sir," replied the victim flat luck, and he bowed to the very platform. as he held up a taitered coat sleeve and He was quite as tall as the count, but not nearly so beautiful a man, for his rents for some time past."—Tit-Bits. nose and his fat cheeks were very red, and then-well, he was Baron Gustave Hermann von dem Mueller. Heaven itself could not preserve me. He poured forth in an absolute torrent: all ther folks?

Si Hampley-All right; only mawshe's complaintn' ag'ln. If a continual inspect

If an eccount retired into the telephone box. Presently he emerged. "Alas," the barron to see you indy dot of I vos some to mine loodching and a seven and a half years, tew-barron telephone was mediately, fraulein, and bearing the count telephone will be in his bodgings on Connecticut."

Again the count retired into the telephone box. Presently he emerged. "Alas," the present the server and a ling of the waste a new hat—only hed this conference with the secretary of agriculture until 12 c'olce). The hour "Fraulein! I dees morning a mes-sach vrom Gount Linstow haf viles ! Ebenezer Strick-What's thet-got to Jezebel, the unspeakable Tyrian prin-cess, brought countless evils in its train. Periods of outward prosperity under the stronger rulers were marked by deepen-ing idolatry and closed ever in bloody civil wars, devastating the land. The great prophets that uttered their bold warnings, Elijah, Elisha, Jonah, Amos and Hosca, were little heeded. Syrian oppression was succeeded by the As-syrian conquest, and the sad history ends with the fail of Samaria, a large part of the people being carried into ex-lie. This story of Israel is one of the most conspicuous examples in the Go-sheen, und—" he paused to wipe the perspiration from his brow. "Just—those—hem?" I faltered.

SENNACHERIB'S INVASION

"Vy ask you, fraulein, iff der vas hens alone? Der vill be hens und

Knowledge of the Law of cocks, too!"-National Magazine

tle, small cattle, without number, brought forth from the midst of them, and allotted as spoil. As for himself, ital city, I shut him up. Forts against him I constructed, and any who would go out of the city gate I caused to turn Historical Illustrations. in which 30,000 horses perished in a few days, and only 20,000 men, without arms, remained alive, out of the 500,000,"- churches of Moscow, the exultation over the fall of Sennacherib is still read on the anniversary of the retreat of the rench from Russia."—Stanley.

Judas Maccabaeus recalled the story to his soldiers on the eve of his great battle with Nicanor.

Five of Our Presidents Died While in Office

fether. The noble geattenen then foured the farms and hatcheries of Long Island and central New York, collecting samples as they went, so that by the time they reached Washington of the time they reached Washington of Long and the control of the time they reached Washington of the trees had been taken guite away that the trees had been taken guite away that the trees had been taken guite away that the theory and went up to the embassy the morning after the gentlemen arrived. Johan, or course, always comes to the door. Every newspaper man in Washington knows Johan—to his sorrow. I anked his ear, and said, as and extracted his ear, and said, as used. Were found the time of the concept of the profession of the first the profession of the profe The Lesson Setting. occurred on July 9, 1850. He conAt the time of our lesson SennascherThan had a maryelously victorium days only sick five ferson, Martin Van Buren, James Mad. a man's desire for kisses.

At the time of our lesson Sennascherit facted a cold and was only sick five it for son, Martin Van Buren, James Madit facts a marvelously victorious days. It is said that worry had much campaign. Sidon has surrendered and the allies of Egypt have been defeated, Forty-six of the fortified cities of Judah then fell before his swift advance, and the fell before his fell before his swift advance, and the fell before his fell before his swift advance, and the fell before his swift a It is add they had tested the beautiful law of compensation. They had learned what lay hidden behind the trees.

Portuguese Politeness.

The Portuguese are extraordinarily polite, not to say ceremonious, in addressing their friends, whether viva wore or by letter. In writing to a Portuguese lady you must not put the missing their friends, whether viva wore or by letter. In writing to a Portuguese lady you must not put the missing their friends and the of dent's office the politicians and the of-lease seekers made his life a burden. Milling the first office the politicians and the of-lease seekers made his life a burden. Milling the president, was twice defeated for the presidency after he had received the nomination, and the same was true of James G. Blaine, who was secretary of state under John Quick Adams, was twice defeated for the presidency after he had received the nomination, and the same was true of James G. Blaine, who was secretary of state under John Quick Adams, was twice defeated for the presidency after he had received the nomination, and the same was true of James G. Blaine, who was secretary of state under John Quick Adams, was twice defeated for the presidency after he had received the nomination, and the same was true of James G. Blaine, who was secretary of state under John Quick Adams, was twice defeated for the presidency after he had received the nomination, and the same was true of James G. Blaine, who was secretary of state under John Quick Adams, was twice defeated for the presidency after he had received the nomination, and the same was true of James G. Blaine, who was secretary of state under John Quick Adams, was twice defeated for the presidency after he had received the nomination, and the same was true of James G. Blaine, who was secretary of state under John Quick Adams, was twice defeated for the presidency after he had received the nomination, and the same was true of James G. Blaine, who was secretary of state under John Quick Adams, was twice defeated for the presidency after the British museum. After an account the first of our martyred presidents, took in securing the coveted office. The presi-mistress trusts him to go out alone, place early on the morning of the 15th of April, 1865. He had entered upon his accord term as president but a little more than a month before. The hand

Ships That Passed at Sea. Samuel J. Elder, the Boston lawyer, borough of the leaven of Puritanism, reskippers of two vessels which met at hell. "What ship is that?" roared the skip- drum. Why is Marvel like the rider to

"All night!" returned the Gloucester

Mrs. Newrich (back from the honey-moon in Switzerland) -- Do you remem-

Mr. Newrich-I do. It was the squar And Now They Don't Speak.

LIFEBOAT BESET BY MAN-EATING SHARKS Horde of Monsters Haunt Long Voyage of Five Men in Small Vessel, which left Papeete on the day Capt. Harris and his men landed there, ema-ciated and nearly crazed, but still alive. When the Victor ended her career by striking the reef the shipwrecked crew had barely time to put off in the boat for their long voyage, made without a compass and no sail, with one day's pro-

The milk from the cocoanuts was all they had to drink during the 11 days it took to reach Papaota. The passage was enlivened by a constant combat with the sharks. In verification of their story oars were shown splintered and worn repelling the attacks of the ferocious fish, which gave them no rest. The Victor was a trader among the Friendly and Society islands.

KISS ONLY IN PARLOR WITH A LOW LIGHT.

elevator, stands upon his hind feet, and with his front paws presses the Samuel J. Elder, the Boston lawyer, who came to Brooklyn not long since to he has been out long enough, he again rings for the elevator, and reaching his own apartments rings the door

> Marvel's conduct suggests a conun-Banbury Cross? Because he has rings

A New Cure for Alcoholism. plied and took my departure. Strange to say, I had no sooner boarded the clevated to return to the city room, than who should step on but Baron Gustave Hermann von dem Mueller and Count Karl Josef Wilhelm von gran Tribune.

Soverelgaty overwhelmed him.

Soverelgaty overwhelmed him.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of gold and 800 talents of givery.

Thirty talents of gold and 800 talents of gold an always go together. He has treated thousands of alcoholic patients and has never yet found a drunkard who had not something the matter with his eyes. Acting on this discovery the docof the visual trouble. He says when he is able to do this-that is, yes see normally—he finds the patient's craving for liquor disappears entirely,

Pollowing the abolition of the lock-step and the cropped head in the New York state prisons has come the doing away with the stripes on convicts' cloth-Maude-Couldn't he get it round?- | mg. and 8,600 suits, minus the stripes, are being made.

There is a Difference.

WE TAKE PLEASURE

comprising an extensive as-sortment of ladies' and gen-

Hair Brushes and Combs.

superior stock of Fountain Pens, especially neat stock

Michardson's Did Stand, Cor. Main and Third Streets.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tableta

secretary laughed and told me he was mighty sorry, but he could not help it—that at least five telephone messages from the embassy had come for the baron while he was in his office, and that Prussian gentleman, excitable at all times, had become quite unmanageable and had left 20 minutes before. The secretary was good enough to detail a clerk to locate the baron for me, while he joyfully rendered statistics on the point in question. He gave me the thrilling news that our egg crop exceeded in value the country's combined gold and silver output since 1850; that our American hers laid during the last fixed varieties. stiput since 1850; that our American tones of the Baron Gustave Wilhelm ens laid during the last fiscal year, 296,006,000 of eggs; that we have in ac United States 87 standard varieties of chickens. He even presented me less of chickens. He even presented me less of chickens warlons kinds (2000) and (2 of hens, the very ones he had given to the baron and the freiherr the day before. It seemed that all these de-

The baron also stated," remarked the secretary dryly, "that he was charmed with the American hen, only he wanted the department to guarantee that she would keep up her model title-deed was held by a city man who

the embassy said the baron was at the club said he was at the club said he was at the combassy.

I returned to the office and there I the stately old frees, and Erhain and Martha were as fond and proud of them as if they owned them, relates Youth's Companion.

Its was a bitter day for the old folks when the woodsmen came. Oak was when the woodsmen came. Oak was was in strong contrast to that of Israel. There had been 13 kings, and only a with crimson hangings and a few old pressed them to sobriety, if not to A small, stout gentleman in an em-broidered smoking jacket opened the door. His hair was perfectly erect The Belknaps never forgot the oak

"Ach! you was der lady!" he cried, law of compensation. They had learned what lay hidden behind the trees.

ound. "Oh, dear, I am so sorry!"

"Ach! I was scho chorry! I vas cho chorry!" he also cried sympathetcho chorry!" he also cried sympathetvoce or by letter. In writing to a cally, "gannot I do somedings, frau- Portuguese lady you must not put on the envelope an equivalent lein? I gan telephone to-"

Valters about the chicken farms in to be so busy with your newspaper when I entered a crowded street car 'Ach!" he cried, "Fraulein, I vas this morning that you didn't see me,

Gustave Hermann von dem Mueller Did she fo and Count Karl Josef Wilhelm von cago Tribune cried that Volsung. "There

Sunday School Lesson for July 2, 1905

ity and the return, and will also review the writing of the major and minor prophets.

The History of Israel, the northern kingdom, we carried to a close in the lessons of last year. Established by Jeroboam in 937 B C. (revised chronotogy), it became extinct in 722 B C., after a troubled existence of a little more than two centuries. It saw 19 kings and nine dynasties, the longest of which, that of Jehu, endured through only five generations. It changed its capital three times—Shechem, Tirzah, Samaria, Seven of its kings reigned that two years or less. Its principal monarchs, Jeroboam. Omri, Ahab, Jehu, and Jeroboam II., had been men whom God could not blees. Ahab's marriage to Jezebel, the unspoakable Tyrian prin-

There had been 13 kings, and only a single dynasty. Moreover, the sreat Kings, Asa, Jehosaphat, Joash, Uzziah and Hezekiah, under whom Judah enjoyed much prosperity, were all good kings and God-Paring men, and reigned collectively 187 years. Idolatry flourished at times, especially after the fool-tsh marriage of Joram to Athaliah, daughter of Jezebel; but a succession of masterful reformation kept the king-

"No!" I exclaimed, "don't ever think of the telephone ever any more. Do in France; no, it must be (in Portu-Philistia, Sennacherib wrote: "And you suppose the baron will come guese, of course) "Her Illustrious Ex- Hezekiah, the Judaite, who had not subcellency, Senhora Donna Maria Kater- mitted to my yoke-46 of his fenced cities, and fortresses, and small towns in that brought death to him was that of

"Senhor" and "Sen-

Squared Himself.

yet there I stood in the aisle, in plain

Collecting Rents.

The Idea!

Ebenezer Strick-Howdy, Si? How's

"I don't think I ever can forgive you back. . . . Fear of the luster of my sovereignty overwhelmed him. . .

uts and making homage (he sent his afterward, on July 21, 1875, he died, ambassador."—McCurdy. "Perhaps the only parallel of which details are known must be sought in the

. . . I an assassin, John Wilkes Booth. It was besieged and took; 200,150 persons, while seated in a box in Ford's theater at Washington on the night before that the Intal shot was fired. After the tell the New England society of that death of President Lincoln, the robes of hief executive fell upon his vice preal- lates this story of a dialogue between the dent, Andrew Johnson. His adminislike a caged bird in Jerusalem, his cap- tration was a stormy one. He differed sea: with the leaders of his party in regard ! o policies, and an attempt was made to per of a little Gloucester schooner, hallimpeach him in the senate. Six years ing a great full rigged ship. after he retired from the presidency he was elected senator of the United States the answer from the captain of the big

It was also an assassin's bullet that man, and he put his helm to port and ended the life of James A. Garfield, who | scurried off to meet the rising dawn,in 1880 was elected president and took N. Y. Tribune. his seat on March 4, 1881. He had been flight of Napoleon from Russia in 1812, in office a little less than four months 1881, at the railroad depot in Washingfor New York on a trip through New | mountains? "It is not without reason, that, in the England, he was shot by Charles J. Guiteau, a crank, who, on the trial of est meal I ever ate .- Tit-Bits. his case in court, was shown to be a dis-appointed office seeker. President Garfield's wound was fatal, but he lingered for over two months, his death occurring arm round my waist last night. on September 19, 1881. He was succeeded by Chester A. Arthur, who had Tit-Bits.